ST. TIMOTHY'S FAMILY PRAYER BOOK: Thanks to those who have written and submitted prayers. Unfortunately not enough families have participated to make it complete. We are asking again that families write a prayer... of thanksgiving, praise and adoration, petition, confession, for healing. These need not be lengthy but from the heart. Each family needs to be included in our Prayer Book to make it a success. Prayers can be sent to Peggy, our Office Administrator.

ST. TIMOTHY'S YOUTH CORNER

SUNDAY SCHOOL NEWS: The toddler room is looking for help supervising our littlest members. Please speak to Olivia or one of the Sunday school teachers if you can help.

Sunday school is looking for more volunteers to supervise the children's movie time on the fourth Sunday of each month. Please let any of the Sunday school teachers know if you can help.

COMMUNITY NEWS

GRACEFIELD CAMP: Gracefield camp, part of the ministry of the Presbytery of Ottawa, had a very successful summer. Over 150 children and youth attended summer camp (a 30% increase following last year's 25% increase), plus 600 nights were booked by groups, families and individuals at its campsites and lodges. The impacts of Gracefield's ministry continue throughout the year, as staff and volunteers welcome church, community and other groups for retreats in the beauty of God's creation. Like any ministry, Gracefield is dependent on the contributions and efforts of volunteers and donors ... like you! To support its continued growth and programming, please consider donating monetary gifts, time or supplies. Go to gracefieldcamp.ca for more details.

If you have questions or would like more information, don't hesitate to email director@gracefieldcamp.ca or info@gracefieldcamp.ca.
