SUNDAY SERVICE	YOUTH	BIBLE STUDY	CRAFT GROUP
With Rev. Reine Boghos 10:00	Sunday school during service Special program for young adult group	Mondays 10:00	Mondays 1:00 - 3:00

I want to begin with a little confession.

There is something I need to admit: I'm in love with social media, particularly Facebook!

People who have travelled or spent time with me can probably tell you a few stories. Often, in the middle of something, I will ask everyone to pause for a picture and then I will post it on Facebook.

If you were a friend with me on Facebook, you are as good as those who were actually there.

When I told my husband that I'm in love with Facebook, he said this is not biblical! He said I should be in love with Insta & not Facebook because Jesus told his disciples "Follow me", not like me!

"Follow me" was the starting line for the disciples' journey with Jesus.

So, at day one this is how Jesus explains what his invitation of "follow me" involves: "I will make you fishers of people" not "emissaries of the kingdom" or "heralds of God" or "disciples of the Messiah" or "witnesses of the divine" or even "the first Christians," but rather "fishers of people".

From a big rich pool of what Christian ministry is all about, this is how Jesus breaks it down: "fishers of people".

I am among those who prefer "fishers of..." to "fish for" because it focuses on identity rather than function.

In other words, when Jesus told his disciples: "follow me, and I will make you fishers of people" Jesus was calling them not into work, but into relationship. Not into a program, but into an identity. Not into a duty, but into a friendship with their neighbours.

His call meant they need to turn toward the community around them & to look at them as neighbours & build friendship with them and allow God to work through them.

So, think of one person in your life and take a moment to pray for them. God may be using you to make a difference in that person's life. May this relationship bring change and hope to them, and deepen your own faith as you follow Jesus.
